

Catholic Schools Week

Catholic Schools Week will be celebrated the week of January 27th - February 1st. It is a fun-filled week when we acknowledge the blessings that we have at LHCS and what makes us different by being a Catholic school.

The theme this year is, "Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed." LHCS will also have a sub-theme that is based around a literary element, "Celebrating CSW Through Literature - Reading, Writing, and Worship...from Cover to Cover".

Here is a preview of some of things that we have planned. You will receive more information next month:

Saturday/Sunday, 1/26 & 27: Wear your uniform to church

Monday, 1/28: "Mystery Monday" - students will solve mysteries throughout the day (wear school uniform)

Tuesday, 1/29: "Tall Tale Tuesday" with STEM activities (wear school uniform)

Wednesday, 1/30: "Writing Wednesday" - a published author will be visiting the school (Students can wear something that represents a favorite character in a book. This is not meant to be a full costume.)

Thursday, 1/31: "Faith Family Fables" with service projects (wear red "Christ is Rich in Me" t-shirt)

Friday, 2/1: "Fantasy Friday" - students can wear pajamas or comfy clothes to school and watch a fantasy themed movie
