

THE DANIEL K STEIN MISSION, INC.

RAISING AWARENESS OF COMBAT PTSD AND TBI THROUGH UNITY, LEADERSHIP, AND ADVOCACY

Change for Change on Friday, March 29th is going towards The Daniel K. Stein Mission, Inc.

SSG Daniel K Stein served his country in the Marine Corps., US Army Infantry, and US Army reserves. Deploying to both Iraq and Afghanistan. Additionally, he was employed in the private sector with Crescent Security Group.

Combat PTSD is identified as an anxiety disorder. Symptoms include insomnia, flashbacks, nightmares, isolation, depression, hypersensitivity, emotional detachment, and more. It physically and psychologically changes the brain. TBI is the result of damage to the brain from an external force.

Fueled by her pain of the death of her husband, the need to educate, and a passion to end this crisis, Misty founded the Daniel K Stein Mission, Inc., October 1, 2017.

The Mission-

“Raise Awareness of Combat PTSD and TBI through Unity, Leadership, and Advocacy.”

– One Family at a Time.

We are the voice of the widow, the child, the family member, left behind this tragedy.
